

Ruth, as rejigged. I have sent a copy to Des & to Mark.

DEPARTMENT OF URBAN & SOCIAL POLICY

CROW - BOX 1 - 1/1 - 0002

Senior Associate

Ruth Crow AM, as Senior Associate, spends one or two days a week on campus. Apart from advice to researchers her activities focus on the production of the quarterly newsletter ECOSO Exchange (circulation 300) and one or two special projects. During 1996 funding of $1500 has been obtained for a project on active citizenship, which will bring secondary students and others from the Western Region onto campus for an ideas exchange day on August 24th. The theme of the project is 'What Kind of Future do we Want?' An exhibition will be conducted in the Footscray Campus library following the ideas exchange day, and contributions will form part of a travelling exhibition to circulate during Semester Two 1996. The Project Steering Committee includes two members of the staff of the Department of Urban and Social Policy, Sheila Byard and Louise Glanville.

Each issue of ECOSO Exchange has a main focus:

ECOSO 2/35, June 1995, Changes in Local Government & Libraries

ECOSO 2/36, Sept 1995, The U.N. Womens. conference etc.

ECOSO 2/37, Dec 1995, 'Citizenship Inquiry'.

ECOSO 2/38, Mar 1996, 'Housing, Habitat & Community State Housing Agreement

ECOSO 2/39, June 1996, What Sort of Society - Education, Work, etc.

Reprinting of Articles from ECOSO. Impossible to judge but we do know these have been reprinted in North Melbourne News, Peoples Committee for Melbourne News, U.A.W. News, Housing for Age Action Group, Rainbow Alliance Newsletter etc

Recent Publications

Crow, R. (1995b) Written submission to Senate Legal and Constitution Reference Committee - National Citizenship Indicators. See printed Reports page 856 (Vol.5) Submission was number 76 - June 1995.

Crow, R. (1996), A Guide to the Crows' Involvement in Social and Political Organisations. (With dates and cross referencing to Crow Collection Victoria University of Technology). 30 pages.

Crow, R. (1995), The Workers Sports Federation 1936 - 1941 for the Radical Collection, Victoria University of Technology, Werribee.

Recent Addresses

Crow, R. (1995a), Oral submission Senate Legal and Constitution Reference Committee NC1 - See Official Hansard Report page 112.

Crow, R. (1995), 'Interpreting the Crow Collection' for Friends of VUT Library, October meeting.

Crow, R. (1996), 'Women Who Helped to Change Society', An International Women's Day Feature on 3CR (broadcast).

Crow, R. (1996), 'Foundation Members of the UAW' for the Essendon Union of Australian Women.

Crow, R. (1996), Interview for 'Apron Strings - Atom Bombs'. Video.

Crow, R. (1996) 'What Sort of Society do we Want Australia to be?' at Point Gellibrand College. ^{secondary}

Forthcoming

Byard, S and Crow, R. (1996) 'Citizenship and Community: Placing the Debate', paper accepted for the Culture and Citizenship Conference, Key Centre for Cultural and Media Policy, Griffith University, September - October, 1996.