

HOPE (VIDEO) - CORRESPONDENCE

1/ 12/ '98

Dear Kevin,

Sue Kyte and I are producing a video, see enclosed pages from our application for funding.

In one section of the video we want to interview someone about the prejudices in areas such as North Melbourne which resulted from the fierce anti-communism of the DLP. and how this disappeared in the 1970s particularly when the urban action movement brought people together face to face etc, As a political person who has had long time association with North Melbourne/ Kensington area where the DLP had quite a stronghold, it is thought that you could make a particularly valuable contribution.

Sue Kyte will be in touch with you in a few days time. In the meantime here is some brief information on the video.

Last week I was interviewed by Film Australia for an ABC video on the 1956 Olympic Games. I spoke about the cultural activities which helped to result in the Games becoming known as the Friendly Games. The video will not be screened for some time, but it may be worth looking out for, By the way the Crow Coll is on the internet, in fact this video crew got in touch with me because they read about the Crow Coll on the internet

I am shifting to live next door to my daughter, Julie, in Horsham. I am not retiring, just changing my address, There is a very effective committee for the Crow Collection Association and the Collection itself has been greatly enhanced through the work of the VUT Library. I will continue to be responsible for the Crow Coll Newsletter, Ecoso but, will of course, be doing much less "networking"

I will always welcome you on a visit to my home (right beside the Wimmera River) if ever you are driving west ~~through the paddocks~~ on the way to Adelaide

Very useful Age article on Royal Park... you certainly were walking tall... quite eye-catching photograph. Sorry I won't be at the Royal Park Rally.. my days of rallying are really over, in any case I will be 3000 Ks to the west...

December 8th is the day the removalist come.. after that my address will be 2a McBain Street Horsham 3400, phone 53,81.2412

Hoping you can be in our video team, yours sincerely

Ruth Crow.

Dear Peter,

Thanks for your note and the return of the letter etc.
I am enclosing two pages from Sue Kyte's application for funds for the video we are making.

Last week I was interviewed by Film Australia for an ABC video on the 1956 Olympic Games. I spoke about the cultural activities which helped to result in the Games becoming known as the Friendly Games. The video will not be screened for some time, but it may be worth looking out for, By the way the Crow Coll. is on the internet, in fact this video crew got in touch with me because they read about the Crow Coll on the internet

Although I am shifting to live next door to my daughter, Julie, in Horsham, I am not retiring, just changing my address, There is a very effective committee for the Crow Collection Association and the Collection itself has been greatly enhanced through the work of the VUT Library. I will continue to be responsible for the Crow Coll Newsletter, Ecoso but, will of course, be doing much less "networking"

I am looking forward to welcoming you and Christine to my home (right beside the Wimmera River) if ever you are driving west on the way to Adelaide and beyond to Perth !

December 8th is the day the removalist come.. after that my address will be 2a McBain Street Horsham 3400, phone 53,81.2412

I would really enjoy working with you on a video, There is the potential for lots of themes in the Crow Collection. I would particularly love doing one on children and the cultural movement, my daughter in Horsham has been involved with activities for young children all her adult life and one of my hidden agendas is to work with her on developing our ideas from our life time experiences etc

This letter is rather awkwardly expressed and perhaps there are typing mistakes. My office conditions, at present, are far from perfect, so please excuse mistakes etc, I have used letterhead so you will have the official address of Crow Coll.

yours sincerely

Ruth Crow.
