Dear Prof McLaren,

This is an S.O.S. to you for a book. Could you please arrange to get a copy of Judith Wright's The Cry for the Dead sent to me by air from any source at the earliest. Payment will be sent on receiving the invoice.

Perhaps you remember you had mentioned the book to me when you visited our Department for a talk a few months back. I had immediately placed an order with Oxford University Press, Melbourne but there is no response so far. I am sure your intervention would help.

With warm regards,

Yours sincerely,

R. Rama
