

Jennifer Ellison,
Australian Literary Management,
2a Armstrong Street,
Middle Park, 3206

15th February, 1989

Dear Jennifer,

Thanks for the Kate Grenville piece. It's splendid and we'll be happy to publish it in our forthcoming issue on the basis of the payment of $150 on publication. As you know John McLaren and I are interested in having work from many A.L.M. authors although our rate of payment, at least at present, has to be quite low. Rates, I hope, will grow with the magazine. We also want to send out a clear signal that Overland wants to welcome and publish women writers, especially the remarkable new wave emerging at present.

Best wishes,

Barrett Reid,
(Editor)

P.S. I've corrected three typos which you may like to note: page 4 par. 3 freckled; page 5 par. 3 magisterial; page 7 last par. quietest.

c.c. J. McL.