Dear John,

First, congratulations on the decision to keep Overland going. The sad loss of Stephen should not mean the end of a fine magazine.

Secondly, can you help me? I am trying to track down the owner of the copyright to Ian Turner's 'Ron Barassi Lecture'. Overland published it in October 1979, but who owns the rights - Overland, Ian's estate (Leonie?) or what? I'm anthologising it in a collection of fine writing on Australian sport and I need a permission.

Yours sincerely,

Bill

Dear Bill,
Leonie presumably ~~still~~ <sup>now</sup> has copyright.
Overland has no objections to your using the article - we would in fact welcome it, although we would appreciate acknowledgement. Leonie's address is as indicated. Best wishes.

John
