Dear Mr Fitt

I am in receipt of a letter to Overland, a literary quarterly, from Ros Kelly, in regard to queries we have raised about our journal's situation if it loses bulk postage registration. Overland publishes Australian creative and critical writing and is published by The Overland Society, a non-profit-making body. All officers of the Society, including the magazine's editor, are honorary. We receive grants from The Literature Board of The Australia Council and The Victorian Ministry for the Arts.

In her letter Ms Kelly refers to a meeting on 21 July at which: "Australia Post made the offer to give consideration to the postal needs of specific publications and to examine what options are available as alternatives to the registered publication services".

As Ms Kelly has referred us to you I am writing to ask what steps I can take to obtain such consideration for Overland.

Yours sincerely,

Michael Dugan
Treasurer
The Overland Society
